

PREAMBLE

ARTICLE I. NAME, BOUNDARIES, POWERS, RIGHTS, AND LIABILITIES

1-10. Name--Boundaries.

1-20. Powers--Rights--Liabilities.

1-30. Council-Mayor Government.

The municipal government provided by this Charter shall be known as the "Council-Mayor Government." Pursuant to its provisions and subject only to the limitations imposed by this Charter, all powers of the City shall be vested in an elective Council and Mayor.

ARTICLE II. ELECTIVE OFFICERS

2-10. (a) Elective Officers--Terms--Limitation of Terms for Mayor and Councilmembers .

(1) Elective Officers--Terms . The elective officers of the City shall be a Mayor and nine (9) Councilmembers who shall be elected at the general municipal elections. The Mayor and five (5) Councilmembers shall be elected at large by the qualified electors of the City and one (1) Councilmember shall be elected from each of the four (4) election districts of the City by the qualified electors of such district as hereafter provided. The Mayor shall be elected by a majority, and not a plurality, of votes cast for the office of Mayor according to a run-off election, the procedures for which shall be established by Council. The terms of the office of Mayor and all Councilmembers whether at large or from districts shall be for a period of four (4) years. (1909; 1969; 1975; 1991)

(2) Limitation of Terms for Mayor .

(3) Limitation of Terms for Councilmembers .

(b) Districts .

(c) Commencement of Office . The term of the Mayor and Councilmembers shall commence at ten o'clock A.M. on the third Tuesday of April following their election, except the term of a Councilmember appointed to fill a vacancy shall commence upon the taking of the oath of office, and further excepted that the term of Mayor may commence on the first Tuesday in June following the general municipal election, if necessary to accommodate a run-off election. The term of the Mayor and Councilmembers elected as a result of a recall election shall commence upon the declaration of the election and taking the oath of office. (1909; 1920; 1969; 1975)

(d) Mayor and Councilmember Elections . The Mayor and the four at-large Councilmembers shall be elected for four (4) year terms commencing with the 1979 general municipal election, and the fifth at-large Councilmember shall be elected for a four (4) year term commencing with the 2011 general municipal election. The four (4) district Councilmembers shall be elected for four (4) year terms commencing with the 1977 general municipal election. (1969; 1975)

(e) Mayor and Councilmember Prohibitions . No elected City officer shall be permitted to run for any elective City office, except that held by him or her, unless written notice is given to the City Clerk of their intention to so run at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of the next general municipal election. Such notice shall not be withdrawn after the 61st day preceding the next general municipal election. Once such notice is given and not withdrawn, the office of that elected officer shall be automatically vacated at 9:59 a.m. on the third Tuesday in April following said election. The vacancy thus created shall be filled by election at the general municipal election next following when such notice was given. The term of office shall be for the unexpired term of the elected officer giving the notice. (1977)

2-20. Qualifications.

2-30.

(a) Vacancy . The office of Mayor or Councilmember shall become vacant upon death, resignation, removal from office, or forfeiture of office in any manner authorized by law. The office of Mayor or at-large Councilmember shall become vacant for failing to maintain bona fide residence in the City. The office of district Councilmember shall become vacant for failing to maintain bona fide residence in the district from which elected. (1909; 1975; 1987)

If a vacancy occurs in the office of Mayor, duties and responsibilities of that position shall transfer according to Section 4-20 of this Charter, and Council shall call an election within ninety (90) days, unless a general municipal election will occur in one hundred eighty (180) days and nominations for the office of Mayor can be timely filed in accord with municipal election law, for the purpose of electing a qualified person to the unexpired term of the office of Mayor. If a general municipal election will occur within one hundred eighty (180) days, the provisions of Section 4-20 shall apply until a successor of the Mayor last elected pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-10 of this Charter is elected and qualified, in accordance with this Charter.

(1909; 1961; 1975; 1987) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a Councilmember more than sixty (60) days prior to the next general municipal election, the Council shall appoint an eligible person to fill such vacancy within thirty (30) days of the date of vacancy until the next general municipal election. Any appointed Councilmember shall be subject to the provisions of recall set forth herein. If a vacancy occurs in the office of a Councilmember within sixty (60) days of a general municipal election, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general municipal election. Any vacancy filled by election shall be for the unexpired term. (1961; 1989)

(b) Forfeiture of Office . The office of Mayor or Councilmember shall be forfeited if:

(3)

(4) In the case of Councilmembers only, a Councilmember fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Council without being excused by the Council.

(1909; 1920; 1975)

ARTICLE III. THE COUNCIL

3-10.

(a) General Powers . All legislative powers of the City shall be vested in the Council, except as otherwise provided by law or this Charter(1909; 1920; 1977; 1993; 2005).

(b) Executive or Administrative Functions. Except as otherwise set forth herein, whenever an executive or administrative function or duty shall be required to be performed by ordinance, the same shall be performed by the executive branch and not by the legislative branch.

(c) Duties . To provide for the future of the City, Council shall maintain a strategic plan which prioritizes goals for the City Council and establishes measurable outcomes. The plan process shall consider public input. Council shall provide the plan and goals to the Mayor for consideration in the development of the municipal administrative budget. (1909; 1920; 1977; 1993; 2005)

(d) Accountability . The City Council shall provide for an annual “Report to the Citizens.” (2005)

(e) Appointments . The Council shall appoint by the concurring vote of a majority of its members a City Auditor, whose duties, compensation, and tenure of office shall be as prescribed by ordinance. All votes upon appointments to office shall be upon roll call and recorded. (1920; 1977; 2005)

(f) The Council shall review and approve by ordinance personnel policies and procedures for all City employees, including civil service employees, but specifically excluding employees of City Utilities and the City’s health system; and all municipal purchasing and contracting rules and regulations, it being determined that, as a matter of policy, City Council shall undertake those tasks through the legislative process.

(g) The Council may review an Mayor’s proclamation in times of public danger or emergency, and may terminate such proclamation at any time by a majority vote of the Council.

3-20. President of Council.

The President of Council shall be elected by and from the members of the Council and shall preside at all meetings of the Council; the President of Council shall have a voice and vote in its proceedings. The President of Council shall be recognized as the leader of the Council.

In the absence of the President of Council, the other members of the Council shall elect one of their number to perform the duties of the President of Council. At its first regular meeting on or after the third Tuesday in April of each odd-numbered year, and biennially thereafter, the Council shall elect one of its members as President of Council. (1909; 1920; 1975)

The President of Council, as such officer, but not as a Councilmember, may be removed from the office of President of Council by a vote of at least five (5) members of the Council.

3-30. Judge of Qualifications .

The Council shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its own members and of the grounds for the forfeiture of the office of Councilmember subject to review by the courts in case of contest. (1909; 1977)

3-40. Restrictions Upon Members of the Council .

Councilmembers shall not hold any other City office, position, employment, or be employed by any agency for which their compensation is directly paid by the City. No former Councilmember shall be appointed to any office, position, or employment, the compensation of which was increased or fixed by the Council while they were a member thereof, until after the expiration of one (1) year from the date when they ceased to be a member of the Council. (1909; 1977)

3-50. Rules of the Council .

3-60. Sessions of the Council .

3-70. Ordinances and Resolutions.

(b)

(c)

(d)

(e) Every ordinance finally passed by the Council shall be presented to the Mayor within forty-eight hours thereafter for final adoption. If the Mayor approves such ordinance, he or she shall finally adopt it by signing it within five days after receiving it. If the Mayor disapproves, the ordinance shall be returned to the Council within five days with the Mayor's objections in writing. If then six (6) of the members vote to pass the same over the Mayor's veto, it shall become a finally adopted ordinance, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor. If the Mayor does not return the ordinance with written objections within the time specified, it shall become finally adopted as if the Mayor had approved it.

(1) In any ordinance appropriating funds, the Mayor may disapprove specific line items without disapproving the entire ordinance. After disapproval of specific line items, the ordinance shall be returned to Council to complete the over-ride process as outlined above as to each line item vetoed.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing subsections, the Mayor shall not have power to disapprove by veto the following listed types of ordinances, this limitation applying only to the following specifically identified ordinances: an ordinance accomplishing any quasi-judicial act; an ordinance approving bonds to be issued by any City enterprise; an ordinance pertaining to Article VI, "Utilities," of this Charter; an ordinance submitting a Charter amendment to a vote of the qualified electors; or an ordinance proposing a Charter convention.

(f) The City Clerk shall, with the Mayor, sign and attest all ordinances and resolutions. (1909; 1977)

3-80. Publication of Ordinances.

Every ordinance shall be published twice in a newspaper or newspapers of general or limited circulation within the City to ensure general coverage in the City with the first publication to be at least ten (10) days before final passage by Council of the ordinance published, and the second publication any time after its final adoption according to Section 3-70(e) above. The ordinance shall not take effect until five (5) days after the second publication. However, emergency ordinances passed as provided in this Article shall take effect upon final adoption and be so published on the following day, subject always to the provisions of Article XII. When the Council deems it appropriate, publication of the title of any ordinance with a summary written by the City Clerk, together with a statement that the ordinance is available for public inspection and acquisition in the office of the City Clerk, shall be sufficient publication. (1909; 1920; 1977; 1989) (Ed. note: The 1977 amendment brought together in a single section the provisions relating to publication which had previously been found in Sections 13 and 14.)

3-90. Emergency Ordinances.

3-100. Amendment or Repeal.

3-110. Record of Ordinances.

3-120. Proof of Ordinances.

3-130. Charter and Ordinances.

3-140. Printed Monthly Statements.

3-150. Adoption by Reference.

3-160. Independent Audit.

ARTICLE IV. THE MAYOR

4-10. Creation of the Office of Mayor; General Powers.

There shall be, and hereby is, created the office of Mayor. The Mayor shall be the chief executive and shall enforce all laws and ordinances; the Mayor shall possess, have and exercise, all the executive and administrative powers granted to the City by Article XX of the Constitution of the State of Colorado, and all executive and administrative powers contained in the Charter of the City, and otherwise existing by operation of law, except as hereinafter delegated to the departments hereinafter created, and except the powers granted to other elective officers by this Charter. The Mayor shall be considered the head of the City government for the purpose of executing legal instruments, for all ceremonial purposes, and by the Governor or other constituted authority for the purpose of military law. The Mayor may take command of the police and govern the City by proclamation in times of public danger or emergency. The Mayor shall from time to time give the Council information on the condition of the City and recommend such measures as he or she may deem expedient. The Mayor shall execute all contracts and see that all contracts and agreements with the City are faithfully kept and fully performed. The head of every department shall report to the Mayor all facts and information known to him or her concerning the violation of any contract or agreement with the City.

4-20. Succession.

(a) Whenever the Mayor is unable, from any cause, to perform the duties of the office for more than a temporary or short-term absence, the President of the Council shall be the acting Mayor and shall hold such office until a successor of the Mayor last elected pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-10 of this Charter is elected and qualified, in accordance with this Charter, at which time the President of the Council may return to his seat on Council.

(b) If the President of Council refuses or is unable to discharge the duties of the Office of Mayor, the Council shall elect one of its members acting Mayor, who shall hold such office until a successor of the Mayor last elected pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-10 of this Charter is elected and qualified, in accordance with this Charter.

(c) Whenever the President of Council becomes the acting Mayor, Council shall elect a new President of Council to serve during the absence as provided in this Charter.

4-30. Restrictions Upon the Office of Mayor.

The Mayor shall not hold any other paid employment position during his or her term in office. No former Mayor shall be appointed to any City office, position, or employment, until after the expiration of one (1) year from the date when he or she ceased to hold the office of Mayor.(1975; 1993)

4-40. Specific Powers and Duties of the Mayor.

The Mayor shall be responsible for all executive and administrative affairs of the City, except those reserved to Council herein, including but not limited to, the following: (1920; 1975)

(a) The Mayor shall see that the laws and ordinances of the City are enforced.

(b) Accountability.

(1) The Mayor shall maintain and submit to the citizens a strategic plan that prioritizes goals for the City and establishes measurable outcomes. The strategic plan shall include the Comprehensive Plan and a five-year capital improvements plan for municipal needs. The plan process shall consider public input. The plan and goals shall be used in the development of the municipal administrative budget. The Mayor shall provide for an annual "State of the City" report to the citizens on progress in meeting the strategic plan.

(2) The Mayor shall prepare and submit to the citizens on or before June 30 of each year, a report on the financial condition of the City that identifies material changes, both positive and adverse. The City shall publish these mid-year and year-end financial reports.

(3) The Mayor shall prepare and submit to the Council a complete report on the finances and administrative activities of the City as of the end of each fiscal year, and the Mayor shall timely make such other reports as the Council may require concerning the operations of City departments, offices, and agencies that are subject to the Mayor's direction and supervision.

(c) The Mayor shall appoint and suspend or remove any City government employee, which excludes employees of City Utilities and the City's health system. All appointments shall be upon merit and fitness alone. The Mayor may authorize any administrative officer who is subject to the Mayor's direction and supervision to exercise these powers with respect to subordinates in that officer's department, office, or agency.

(d) The Mayor shall direct and supervise the administration of all departments, divisions, offices, and agencies of the City, except as otherwise provided by this Charter or by law. The Mayor may delegate administrative and ministerial functions to the administrative officers of the City.

(e) The Mayor will appoint a Chief of Staff to act as an administrative officer of the municipal government under the Mayor's supervision and who shall serve at the pleasure of the Mayor.

However, despite such delegation or appointment, the responsibility for the proper and effective administration of the City remains always with the Mayor and none other.

(f) Appointments. Subject to confirmation by the concurring vote of a majority of the members of City Council, the Mayor shall appoint individuals to serve at the pleasure of the Mayor in the following positions. If Council fails to begin the confirmation process for any appointment within thirty (30) days thereof or fails to take final action to approve or deny the appointment within ninety (90) days thereof, the appointment shall be deemed confirmed.

- (1) City Clerk;
- (2) City Attorney and Municipal Judges;
- (3) Chief Financial Officer, or the Controller, or, regardless of title, the official acting as the City's financial manager; and the City Treasurer, the offices of which may be held by one person;
- (4) Police Chief and Fire Chief;
- (5) Regardless of title, the leader of head of the City's departments, divisions, offices, agencies, or enterprises relating to public works, parks, community development and the municipal airport so that the individual ultimately responsible for each such function answers directly to the Mayor;
- (6) The director or manager of any City department, division, office, agency, or enterprise if the Mayor's appointment authority is set forth by ordinance, except that the Mayor shall not appoint the chief executive officers of the City Utilities or the City's health system.

(g) The Mayor shall see that all terms and conditions imposed in favor of the City or its inhabitants in any contract or franchise are faithfully kept and performed, and upon knowledge of any violation thereof to report the same to the City Attorney, who is hereby required to take such proceedings as may be necessary to enforce the same.

(h) The Mayor shall have the right to attend and be heard at any regular or special open session meeting of the Council, and may recommend to the Council for adoption such measures as the Mayor deems necessary or expedient. (i) On or before the first Monday in October in each year, the Mayor shall furnish to the Council estimates in writing of the probable expenses to be incurred in the several departments of the City for the ensuing fiscal year, specifying in detail probable expenditures, including a statement of the salaries of all administrative officers and employees, and certify the amount of money to be raised by taxation during the ensuing fiscal year to make payment of interest, sinking fund, and principal of bonded indebtedness and also the estimated amount of revenue from all sources other than tax levy. At the same time or on such later date in each year as shall be fixed by the Council, the Mayor shall prepare and present to the Council the annual budget for the ensuing fiscal year, which shall include interest and sinking fund on the bonded debt. The budget so prepared shall be in such detail as to the aggregate sum and the items thereof allowed to each department, office, board, or commission as the Mayor may deem advisable except such as are fixed by law.

(j) The Mayor shall serve as an ex officio and non-voting member of the Board of Directors for Utilities. (1920; 1975)

(k) The Mayor shall perform such other executive and administrative duties as may be prescribed by the Charter or the ordinances of the City. (1920; 1975)

ARTICLE V. ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENTS

5-10. Creation of Departments.

By ordinance, the City Council may establish departments, divisions, offices, or agencies in addition to those created by this Charter and may prescribe the functions of all departments, offices, and agencies, except that no function assigned by this Charter to a particular department, office, or agency may be discontinued or, unless this Charter specifically so provides, assigned to any other. The specific positions enumerated in Section 4-40(f)(1)-(4), as well as the leader or head of departments described in Section 4-40(f)(5) shall be appointed by the Mayor, subject to confirmation by Council. Such departments, divisions, offices, or agencies may include but not be limited to police, fire, and health. (1977)

5-20. Direction by the Mayor.

All departments, divisions, offices, and agencies shall be under the direction and supervision of the Mayor but may be administered by the Mayor's Chief of Staff. The Mayor may serve as the head of one or more such departments, offices, or agencies or may appoint one (1) person as the head of two (2) or more of them. (1977)

ARTICLE VI. UTILITIES

6-10. Utilities Director, Appointment.

6-20. Definitions.

6-30. General Powers.

6-40. Utilities--Accounting--Reserves.

(a) City Council shall serve as the Board of Directors for Utilities, and the Mayor shall serve as an ex officio and non-voting member thereof. Utilities shall include the Departments designated by the Manager of Utilities and approved by Council. Each of said departments shall, as far as practicable, be administered as an entity. All revenues of each department shall be placed in the Utilities Gross Income Fund, from which all operating and maintenance expenses shall be deducted. The funds of Utilities shall be kept separate from the funds of all other departments of the City. (1977; 1985; 1991; 1995)

(b)

(c)

(d)

(e)

6-50. Water Rights.

6-60. Emergency Warrants.

6-70. Utility Rates.

6-80. Sale, Conveyance or Leasing of Utilities.

ARTICLE VII. FINANCE

7-10. Fiscal Year.

7-20. Public Monies.

(a) The Mayor shall have the direct control of the revenues of the City except as otherwise provided by this Charter or by ordinances. (1909; 1977)

(b)

7-30. Budget.

(c)The budget shall include all stipends and other expenses of City Council and the salary of the Mayor and the budget shall declare the amount of money necessary to fund the budget. Subject to any pre-existing bond covenants, the City Council's budget shall be apportioned among the City's general fund, its Utilities funds and its health system fund as a reflection of City Council's direct responsibilities for all municipal and Utilities matters as well as City Council's general supervision and control of health system matters based upon such reasonable allocation methodology as City Council may determine. (2005)

7-40. Levy.

7-50. Appropriations.

7-60. No Liability Without Appropriation.

Neither the Council, nor the Mayor, nor any administrative officer or employee of the City shall have authority to make any contract involving the expenditure of public money, or impose upon the City any liability to pay money, unless and until a definite amount of money shall have been appropriated for the liquidation of all pecuniary liability of the City under such contract or in consequence thereof to mature during the period covered by the appropriation. Such contract shall be ab initio null and void as to the City for any other or further liability, provided, first, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Council from providing for payment of any expense, the necessity of which is caused by any casualty, accident, or unforeseen contingency arising after the passage of the annual appropriation ordinance; and, second, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to or limit the authority conferred in relation to bonded indebtedness, nor for monies to be collected by special assessments for local improvements. (1909; 1977) (Ed. note: Formerly section 44.)

7-70. Collection of Taxes.

7-80. Limitation on City Indebtedness.

7-90. The Taxpayer's Bill of Rights.

7-100. Limitation on District Indebtedness.

(b)

(c) The City Council and Mayor shall make available to the public all essential data and information regarding the financial condition and status of any and all districts established pursuant to Title 31, C.R.S. (1993)

ARTICLE VIII. MUNICIPAL COURT

ARTICLE IX. BOARD AND COMMISSIONS

ARTICLE X. FRANCHISES AND LICENSES

ARTICLE XI. ELECTIONS

ARTICLE XII. RECALL, INITIATIVE, AND REFERENDUM

ARTICLE XIII. OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND SALARIES

13-10. Officers, Employees.

Councilmembers shall be the legislative officers of the City. The Mayor shall be the chief executive and chief administrative officer of the City. The City Attorney, City Clerk, City Treasurer, City Auditor, Chief of Staff, and all department heads shall be the administrative officers of the City. All other persons employed by the City shall be City employees. (1909; 1979)

13-20. Compensation for Elected Officials.

(a) The Mayor shall be paid an annual salary adjusted by ordinance every four years to coincide with the start of a new mayoral term and shall reflect any change, up or down, over that four-year period in the most local consumer price index for all urban consumers (CPI-U) published by the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, beginning with an annual salary of $96,000.00 for the first Mayor serving under the Council-Mayor Government in April 2011. In addition, the City of Colorado Springs shall provide employee benefits to the Mayor in the same manner as provided to other full-time City employees.

(b) All Councilmembers shall receive an annual stipend of $6,250 payable pursuant to ordinance. The City of Colorado Springs shall not provide City paid benefits to Councilmembers other than those mandated by federal or state statute. (1995)

13-30. Oaths.

Every legislative, executive, and administrative officer of the City and all other employees required by law shall, before they enter upon the duties of their office, take, subscribe, and file with the Clerk an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of Colorado, and the Charter of The City of Colorado Springs, and to faithfully perform the duties of the office upon which they shall be about to enter. (1909; 1979;1995)

13-40. Bonds.

13-50. Personal Financial Interest.

Any City officer, employee, or appointee who has a substantial financial interest, direct or indirect or by reason of ownership of stock in any corporation, in any contract with the City or in the sale of any land, material, supplies, or services to the City or to a contractor supplying the City shall make known that interest and shall refrain from voting upon or otherwise participating in their capacity as a City officer or employee in the making of such sale or in the making or performance of such contract. Any City officer or employee who willfully conceals such a substantial financial interest or willfully violates the requirements of this section shall be guilty of malfeasance in office or position and shall forfeit said office or position. Violation of this section with the express or implied knowledge of the person or corporation contracting with or making a sale to the City shall render the contract or sale voidable by the Mayor or the City Council. (1909; 1977; 1979)

13-60. Prohibitions.

13-70. Removal of Striking Employees.

It shall be unlawful for any employee of the City of Colorado Springs to participate in or engage in a strike or any action to withhold service from the City. In the event of such strike or action, any employee who participates or engages therein shall be disciplined. Such discipline shall be discharge; however, for any such employee who has acted in violation of this section as a result of coercion or threat of serious harm, such discipline shall be suspension without pay. Such disciplinary action may be appealed only under such rules as the Mayor shall establish. Neither Council nor any administrative officer of the City shall grant amnesty to any employee in violation of this section. (1979; 1980)

13-80. City Attorney, Duties.

13-90. City Attorney Assistants.

(a) The City Attorney may employ assistants who shall receive such salary as the Council by ordinance shall prescribe. (1979)

(b)

ARTICLE XIV. CIVIL SERVICE

ARTICLE XV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

15-10. Transition to Council-Mayor Form of Government.

The form of government existing in the City at the time of adoption of this revised Charter shall continue unaltered, and, except as inconsistent with this revised Charter, all officers and other persons in the service of the City at the time this revised Charter takes effect shall continue to serve as such and to receive compensation therefor as now provided by law and to have and exercise the powers, authority, and jurisdiction theretofore possessed by them respectively.

(a) Upon approval of this revised Charter by voters in 2010, the City's form of government shall begin to transition from a Council-Manager form of government to the Council-Mayor form of government so that the Mayor elected at the City's regular election of April 2011, or any run-off election necessary thereafter, shall assume the duties set forth herein. In addition, the fifth at-large councilmember, created by Section 2-10-(a)(1) herein, shall be elected at the City's regular election of April 2011.

(b) The Mayor in office at the time of approval of this revised Charter by voters in 2010 shall remain in office under the Council-Manager Government until the Mayor elected at the City's regular election of April 2011, or any run-off election necessary thereafter, is sworn in under the Council-Mayor Government.

(c) Upon approval of this revised Charter by voters in 2010, the Council shall complete within ninety (90) days its review and approval by ordinance of the personnel policies and procedures and its review and approval by ordinance of the purchasing and contracting rules and regulations, as mandated by Section 3-10(f) herein.(1909; 1979)

15-20. Compilation of Charter.

15-30. Present Ordinances Continue in Force.

All laws, ordinances, resolutions, by-laws, orders, rules, or regulations in force in the City at the time this Charter takes effect, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter, shall continue in full force and effect, until the Council otherwise by ordinance, resolution, or motion provides. All references to the City Manager in laws, ordinances, resolutions, by-laws, orders, rules, or regulations in force in the City shall, following the City's regular election of April 2011, be read to refer to the Mayor unless otherwise specified herein. (1909; 1979)

15-40. Continuing Bonds.

15-50. Submission of Charter Amendments.

15-60. Reservation of Power.

15-70. Conflict Between Measures--Which Adopted.
